

COBRA GENERAL NOTICE of the
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA PUBLIC SAFETY RETIREE MEDICAL TRUST

<< IMPORTANT COBRA INFORMATION >>
THIS COBRA INFORMATION WILL INFORM YOU OF YOUR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UNDER COBRA. YOU AND YOUR SPOUSE SHOULD TAKE THE TIME TO READ THIS CAREFULLY.

Under this type of health plan, i.e., a retiree medical expense reimbursement plan, COBRA benefits mean the right to continue contributions to the Trust, in order to obtain certain Plan benefits after retirement. This Plan gives the Employee (or family member) the right to self-pay contributions into the Trust, which were formerly paid pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or other special agreement while the Employee was working. If you have questions regarding the eligibility requirements under the Plan, or are in doubt about the application of COBRA under this Plan, please contact the Trust Office.

It is important to note that the type of continuation coverage under this Plan is unusual. Under this Plan, self-paid contributions (if sufficient, as explained below) would entitle the Qualified Beneficiary to reimbursement of a portion of your health medical expense costs after retirement,¹ rather than health benefits immediately following active employment. That is, this Plan is for retiree health benefits, not benefits soon after termination of active employment.

1. COBRA Generally. You are a participant in the “Medical Expense Reimbursement Plan” (hereafter the “Plan”) of the Southern California Public Safety Retiree Medical Trust (hereafter the “Trust”), which provides reimbursement towards certain medical expenses, as defined in the Plan, after retirement. Continued participation in any health plan is a right governed by a federal law called the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, commonly known as “COBRA.”²

THIS NOTICE GENERALLY EXPLAINS YOUR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UNDER COBRA, WHEN THE RIGHT TO SELF-PAYMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS UNDER COBRA MAY BECOME AVAILABLE TO YOU AND WHAT YOU NEED TO DO TO PROTECT YOUR RIGHT TO MAKE COBRA SELF-PAYMENTS. YOU AND YOUR SPOUSE SHOULD TAKE THE TIME TO READ THIS CAREFULLY.

¹ In a typical health plan, the COBRA right entitles the Employee to self-pay contributions to continue to receive health coverage immediately following loss of employment. In contrast, this Plan does not pay coverage to terminated Employees until retirement. The Plan accepts contributions during active employment, which are held by the Trust and will be used by Employees to purchase health coverage after retirement. In the event of the Employee’s death, generally, payments to the Surviving Spouse will commence the month after the Employee would have attained the eligibility age under the Plan.

² Public Law 99-272, Title X

2. COBRA Coverage Means the Right to Self-Pay Continued Contributions to Plan for Benefits After Retirement.

A. The Application of COBRA to this Plan. Under this Plan, COBRA continuation coverage is the right to continue contributions to the Trust by self-payment, when contributions to the Trust would otherwise have ceased because of a certain life event known as a “Qualifying Event.” After a Qualifying Event, the Plan must offer each person who is a “Qualified Beneficiary” the COBRA right to self-pay contributions, which were formerly being forwarded pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or special agreement. By offering a Qualified Beneficiary this right, generally, the Plan is offering that individual the ability to increase their benefits from the Plan in one of two ways:

- i) The ability to meet eligibility requirements to receive a lifetime³ monthly reimbursement benefit from the Plan after retirement, which he/she may not otherwise have been able to meet (see Section 2(B) below), and/or
- ii) To augment their monthly post-retirement benefit, if the person had already met the eligibility requirement.

You, your spouse, and your Children could become Qualified Beneficiaries if contributions to the Trust on behalf of the covered employee cease due to a Qualifying Event.

B. Plan Eligibility Requirements. To be eligible to receive these medical expense reimbursement benefits after retirement, this Plan requires that the Employee earn at least seven (7) years of Active Service as defined in Section 2.2 of the Plan. Therefore, making COBRA self-payments could make you eligible, depending on how many years of Active Service you have earned at the time of the Qualifying Event.

Also, since the Plan provides for a gradually increasing level of benefits based on the number of years of your contributions, you may be able to increase your monthly Benefit Level if you make additional contributions. It is important for you to determine whether making these additional contributions makes sense in your particular situation. If you choose to continue making contributions to this Plan, the number of your self-pay contributions is limited to the number allowed by COBRA, as stated in Section 7 below.

Consequence of Non-Election. If you do not choose to continue contributing to this Plan, and you have not earned at least seven (7) years of Active service, you will forfeit any benefits, contributions made, and Active Service earned under this Plan.

C. Surviving Spouses and Children. Surviving Spouses and Children may also have the right to continue self-payment under certain circumstances. Contact the Trust Office at the address in Section 5 below for details.

³ The Plan is currently written to provide benefits for most Retirees until death. However, this is not guaranteed. The Trustees reserve the right to modify or terminate benefits as necessary to preserve the financial soundness of the Plan.

3. Qualifying Events and Qualified Beneficiaries.

A. An Employee as a Qualified Beneficiary. If you are an Employee, you will become a Qualified Beneficiary and have the right to self-pay contributions for yourself (and your beneficiaries), if contributions to the Trust on your behalf cease due to:

- i) Termination of Employment. Your employment is terminated for any reason other than gross misconduct.⁴

This Qualifying Event generally gives you the right to continue self-payment of contributions to this Plan.

B. The Spouse as a Qualified Beneficiary. If you are the spouse of an Employee covered by this Plan, you will become a Qualified Beneficiary and may have the right to self-pay contributions for yourself if contributions to the Trust on your spouse's behalf cease due to any of the following "Qualifying Events,"⁵ and provided that the Employee does not elect to self-pay contributions under COBRA*:

- i) Employee Spouse's Death. The death of the Employee spouse; or
- ii) Termination of Employee Spouse's Employment. A termination of the Employee spouse's employment (for reasons other than gross misconduct).

C. Child as a Qualified Beneficiary. If you are a Child of an Employee covered by this Plan, you may become a Qualified Beneficiary and have rights to self-pay contribution to this Plan if contributions to the Trust on your parent's behalf cease due to any of the following Qualifying Events,⁶ and provided that the Employee parent or spouse does not elect to self-pay contributions under COBRA*:

- i) Death of Parent. The death of the parent who is the Employee; or
- ii) Termination of Parent's Employment. The termination of the Employee parent's employment (for reasons other than gross misconduct).

*Note: Only one member of a family may make self-payment contributions in this type of health plan. If there are multiple Qualified Beneficiaries, for example a former employee and a spouse, you should confer together and decide whether electing to make COBRA self-pay contributions makes sense in your case, and which of you will make the election. It is important to note that due to the nature of this type of Plan, you do not each have independent rights to elect self-payment. This means that only one Qualified Beneficiary can self-pay.

⁴ In some health plans, a reduction of hours from going on leave of absence would be a Qualifying Event. However, contributions to this Plan do not stop when you go on authorized leave of absence. Therefore, you would continue to earn Active Service during an authorized leave of absence and self-pay COBRA contributions are not necessary.

⁵ Some health plans recognize the following Qualifying Events: 1) your spouse becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both) and 2) you become divorced or legally separated from your spouse. However, due to the structure of this plan, these are not recognized Qualifying Events.

⁶ Under some plans, a child losing Child status under the plan would be a Qualifying Event, but because of the plan design of this Plan, this event is not a Qualifying Event under this Plan.

4. Notification of Qualifying Event.

A. Employer's Notification Responsibility. The Plan will offer the COBRA option to self-pay contributions to Qualified Beneficiaries only after the Plan Administrator has been notified that a Qualifying Event has occurred. When the Qualifying Event is the termination of employment or death of the employee, your employer must notify the Plan Administrator of the Qualifying Event.

B. Qualified Beneficiary's Notification Responsibility. Under COBRA, the Employee or a family member has the responsibility to provide written notice, within the time limits described in Section 4(C) below, to the Trust Office of the occurrence of any of the following Qualifying Events:

- i) The occurrence of a second Qualifying Event after a Qualified Beneficiary has become entitled to self-pay contributions under COBRA for a maximum period of eighteen (18) months (or twenty-nine (29) months in the case of a disability, as described in Section 6 below);
- ii) A Qualified Beneficiary is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled at any time prior to or during the first sixty (60) days of self-payment contributions; or
- iii) A Qualified Beneficiary, who was determined as disabled is subsequently determined by the Social Security Administration as no longer disabled.

C. Timing Requirements for Qualified Beneficiaries to Notify the Trust Office of Qualifying Events.

i) Qualifying Events Other Than Disability. The period of time for providing notice to the Trust Office for the occurrence of a second Qualifying Event, is sixty (60) days after the latest of:

- a) Qualifying Event. The date that the Qualifying Event occurs; or
- b) Contributions to the Trust Cease. The date that contributions to the Trust cease or should cease as a result of the Qualifying Event; or
- c) The Date you Receive Notice. The date that you are informed through this Notice of your responsibility to provide notice to the Trust Office and the Plan's procedures for providing such notice (see Section 5 below).

ii) Qualifying Event of Disability. The period of time for providing notice to the Trust Office of a disability determination is sixty (60) days after the latest of the following events (but no later than the end of the first eighteen (18) months period of self-payment contributions):

- a) Determination by Social Security Administration. The date of the disability determination by the Social Security Administration;
- b) Disability. The date that the disability occurs;

- c) Contributions to the Trust Cease. The date that contributions to the Trust cease or should cease as a result of the Qualifying Event; or
 - d) The Date you Receive Notice. The date that you are informed through this Notice of your responsibility to provide notice to the Trust Office and the Plan's procedures for providing such notice (see Section 5 below).
- iii) Change of Disability Status. The period of time for providing notice to the Trust Office of a change in disability is thirty (30) days after the latest of:
- a) Determination by Social Security Administration. The date the Social Security Administration determines that you are no longer disabled; or
 - b) Notice of Responsibility and Procedure. The date on which you are informed through this Notice of the responsibility to provide notice and the Plan's procedures for providing notice to the Trust Office (see Section 5 below)

5. Procedures for Notifying Plan of Qualifying Event. Subject to the time limits in Section 4(C) above, a Qualified Beneficiary must provide written notice of the Qualifying Event(s), described in Section 4(B) above, to the Trust Office by either first class mail or email. The contact information for the Trust Office is as follows:

Southern California Public Safety Retiree Medical Trust
c/o Benefit Programs Administration
1200 Wilshire Blvd. 5th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90017
Email: scpublicsafety@bpabenefits.com

The notice of the Qualifying Event should include:

- A. Identifying Information of the Employee and Qualified Beneficiary. The name and social security number of the Employee and of the Qualified Beneficiary;
- B. Contact Information of the Filing Beneficiary. The current address and phone number of the Qualified Beneficiary who is filing the notice; and
- C. Information Relating to the Qualifying Event. The nature of the Qualifying Event and the date on which the Qualifying Event occurred.

When the Trust is notified that one of these Qualifying Events has occurred, it will, in turn, notify you about details concerning your election to continue your contributions to the Trust for the right to receive future benefits.

6. Maximum Length of COBRA Payments. Once you have elected to take advantage of your COBRA right to self-pay contributions, your initial payment is due within 45 days of your election. Subsequent periodic payments must be made on a monthly basis and are due on the first of each month, but no later than 30 days following the first of the month. You will not receive monthly reminders that payment is due.

A. First Qualifying Event. COBRA continuation coverage is a temporary continuation of self-payment of contributions.

i) 18 month period. When the Qualifying Event is a termination of employment, the law requires that you be given the opportunity to self-pay contributions for eighteen (18) months.

ii) 36 month period. When the Qualifying Event is death of the covered employee, the COBRA law requires that you be given the opportunity to continue to make contributions to the Trust by self-payment for thirty-six (36) months (three years).

B. Second Qualifying Event Extension (18 month extension of the initial 18 month period). If a second Qualifying Event, other than termination of employment, occurs during the eighteen (18) month period of self-payment of contributions, the Plan beneficiaries may be eligible to receive an extension of up to eighteen (18) months of self-payment contributions, for a maximum of thirty-six (36) months. See Sections 4(A)-(C) and 5 relating to notification requirements and procedure in the case of a second Qualifying Event.

C. Disability Extension (11 month extension of the initial 18 month period). If a Qualified Beneficiary under the Plan is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled, the Plan beneficiaries may be eligible to self-pay for an additional eleven (11) months, for a total of twenty-nine (29) months. The disability would have to have started at some time before the 60th day of the COBRA self-payment contributions and must last at least until the end of the 18-month period of self-payment contributions. See Sections 4 and 5 relating to notification requirements and procedure in the case of disability.

Please note the cost you pay for the additional eleven (11) months may be approximately 50% higher than the amount of the first eighteen (18) months if the self-payment contributions include a disabled beneficiary and the extension of period for self-payment contributions would not be available in the absence of a disability.

7. Termination of COBRA Payments. The COBRA law provides that your right to continue COBRA payments may be terminated prior to the full self-payment period – eighteen (18), twenty-nine (29), or thirty-six (36) months – for any of the following reasons:

- A. The Trust no longer maintains the Plan; or
- B. Your employer no longer contributes to the Plan on behalf of employees; or
- C. The monthly self-pay contribution to the Trust under COBRA is not paid timely; or
- D. There has been a final determination that you are no longer disabled if you qualified to make an extra eleven (11) months of self-pay contributions based on disability.

You do not have to show that you are insurable to choose continued participation.

8. Refund of Contributions Erroneously Paid. Any self-paid contributions to the Plan made and accepted in error, shall be refunded to you by the Plan Administrator and shall not confer upon you any rights under the Plan if it is determined that you are ineligible to self-pay contributions. Any Active Service granted based on an erroneous contribution will be rescinded.

9. Questions about COBRA. If you have any questions about the Plan or your COBRA continuation self-payment rights, you should contact the Trust Office at the address, email, or phone number appearing below.
