II. HIPAA NOTICE AVAILABLE

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) contains a Privacy Rule, which establishes national standards to protect individuals’ medical records and other personal health information (“PHI”). The rule requires the protection of personal health information, sets limits and conditions on how such information can be shared, and gives patients certain rights over the disclosure of PHI. The Board of Trustees has appointed a Privacy Contact Person. The Privacy Contact Person will ensure that the privacy of your PHI is maintained in accordance with the terms of the Privacy Rule and other applicable laws. You may file a Privacy Complaint with the Privacy Contact Person whenever you believe that there has been a violation of the Privacy Rule.

The Trust has a HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices (“Privacy Notice”) that describes how the Trust may use and disclose medical information about you. The Privacy Notice also informs you of your rights under HIPAA and how you can get access to protected health information maintained by the Trust. If you would like to review the Trust’s current Privacy Notice, you may request a hard copy of the Trust’s current Privacy Notice, or obtain further information and assistance with the Privacy Notice, by contacting the Trust’s Privacy Contact Person (at the Trust Office) at:
